VIRGINIA MIDLAND RAILROAD -- At noon to day Colonel John S. Barbeur, Commissioner, appointed by the Circuit Court to sell the W. C. V. M. & G. S. Railroad, its fatchises, stock, &c., announced from the steps of the Corporation Court room that for good and sufficient reasons, the sale would be pestponed till four o'clack this evening.

This evening at 4 o'clock, in front of the Market Building, Col. Barbour, Commassioner, offered the road, its franchises, &c., before a large concourse of persons. There was, however, but one bid of four and a half million of dollars and there being none other them. dollars, and there being none other, the road was "knocked down" to Messrs R. T. Baldwin, J. Wilcox Brown and Robert Carrett, trustees of the Associated Eentholders, Creditors and Ftocknolders of the road. We understand that the legal impediment, the supersedess granted at the instance of Mr. Gibert, by Judge Christian, was withdrawn prior to the sale.

RADICAL READJUSTER MOR - Wild Scene-Court House Property Destroyed—A Disgrace ful Endorsement—It was stated in yesterday's Gazatto that the macing called for last night would probably prove as interesting gathering. judging it in the preparations being made for it in the way of leg rolling. And so it turned out. The Mahana wing of the readjuster party had been working all day among the colored people with the object in view of receiving an endersement of their ticket, and when the crowd anticited last night the white readjusters were there in full force, determined to prevent, at all hazard, any region being taken favour able to new other expendant for City Sergeant but the one they had pur up.

The me eig was intended to be republican mass meeting, and as such it started out orderly, but it was not long before it developed into a readjuster mob, the disgraceful precoedings of which stand unequalled even by the previous Sun Eagine House meeting held by this party. The same parties, with some exceptions, of course, that figured at the Sun Engine House meeting were at the old Court House last night, and while the whites of the party did not take a public active part in the proceedings, they seeredly, by mixing up in the crowd, and whispering in the ears of their agents, and applauding the remarks of the few colored men they had decrived during the day, incited, and are responsible for a meeting that could not have been more infernal had it been a council of devils, presided over by his majesty Bee'z bub himself. Charles Seals was called to the chair and

Thomas Elelin chosen secretary.

The chairman undertook to state the object of the meeting, when several colored readjust ers rose to pain s of order, and the white min ions of the party bened and yelled, but Seals calmly waited, and when the disorder had sub sided he stated that he intended to follow the precedent established by the chairman of the executive committee of the Malone readjusters and recognize none but straighout republicans. Several colored men arese and demanded to be heard, but the chairman ruled them all out of order, on the ground that they were readjusters and no readjuster could speak in a republican meeting over which he presided. A. W. Harris then demanded to be heard on the ground that he was a republican, but the chairman declared him out of order. Harris said he would be heard, and smid the wildest disorder proceeded to address his friends, the chairman tapping all the time with a big stick on the railing of the judge's stand, while the white persion of the audience yelled and cried put Seals out. Seals held his ground and invisted that no readjuster should speak in that meeting. He had been elected chairman and intended to preside and no bull dexing white readjusters, si ind by a low colored men, whom they had benglit over, could drive

Here Dick Dogan, a member of the Mahone readjuster committee, attempted to excate more disorder, when Scala threatened to call a policyman and have him taken out.

A. W. Armstrong than said he hoped Harris would be allowed to speak. Harris said that was just what he proposed to do.

He commended by accacking Armstrong. styling him a more boy, and criticizing his action in strateg a perition unring Judge Stuart's re- legion to the julgeship of the Corporation Court, and in entrying Milly Motby to the pent entury, after she had been em victed by a jury of marrying a while may. He charged Arms rong with baving made a pro-position to self-our to H. V. Daniel, who was a rank democrat. Harris speke in the most vehencet manner for about a half an hour, and received from code us applicase from the white readjusters present. A. W. Armstrong thou, in a quiet speech which was listened to with attention by all, except one or two of the readjuster committee men, related the charge of having made a proposition to any candidate, and called upon the colored men who were mentioned as having heard the conversation to corroborate what he said, which they did. He then referred to the Milly Mottey case, and spoke in the highest terms of Judge Smarr, and said that he would defy any man present to charge that gentleman with corrupt motives. If there had been a colored judge on the binch he would have been compelled to pass sentence upon the Motly woman after a jury had found her guilty, and the efficers of the court would have had to exeoute the sentence: He was a republican and one from principal, and claimed that he could be a republican without being a readjuster; that the battinery of the republican party was an honest sattlement of debts. He intended to run until sun deep on the 27th instant. Mr. Armstrong's speech was applicaded by the colored republicans present, and it was plainly evident that the mass of the meeting was with

Gaines, colored, made a noisy republican readjuster speech, and the rankest sentiments were lounly applauded by the white readjusters. H. L. Harr's then made a long, but intelligent speech, at the corclusion of which he offered a resolution decaring it inexpedient to make any nomination as a party, but that each republican be allowed to act for himself in the coming niunicipal election. R. F. Tateil asked the chair what was the complexion of the meeting. The chair stated that it was called for a republican meeting, but he was sorry that a few colored men, aided by a few roughs, had come there with the intention to break it up. He was sorry also to see a few of the colered men make monkies of themselves to the delight of the conservative party.

Tancil continued to speak and was frequently interrupted by a drunken colored man named Quintus, who asked all serts of ridiculous questions. A movement was made to put Quintus out, but Quintue, with the courage of a Roman, wouldn't go. Then followed more yelling and laughing.

Seals ruled out the resolution off rid by Harris, on the ground that it did not come from a republican.

Another wild yelling, groaning come took place in which Quintus figured prominently, insisting that he must say something. A motion was made to oust Seals from the chair, but Scale, with a big etick in Lie hand, stood firm. R. D. Beckley attempted to offer a substitute for the resolution presented by Harris, and pro ceeded to speak when another storm broke forth in all its fury. A calm prevailed fer a moment, and Beckley announced himself a readjuster. Cheers from the readjusters present, during which a rush was made for the stand and a free fight took place. The Court House, the streets, in the fray, which lasted until Officers Good-rich and Walker rushed in, who, after a short struggle, succeeded in part ally restoring order, the two policeman taking their stand

Seals was charged with being a readjuster, and having put Armstrong in nomination at the late rendjuster meeting, which he pronounced a falsehood, and stated that he attempted to put Mr. Armstrong in nomination, but the readjusters wou'd not entertain the nomination, because he (Armstrong) was a republican.

Cals were made for Mr. D. A. Windsor, chairman of the Mahone readjuster committee, who mounted a chair and stated that Seals did participate in the late readjuster meeting, and was then a member of the Fourth Werd readjuster committee.

The fight over, Seals still held his post as chairman. Addresses were made urging the crowd to become quiet. A motion was made and carried to adjourn, and Seals declared the meeting evar.

A. W. Harris then jumped upon the stand and called the crowd together again. A large number left, but a few readjusiers, white and colored remained. Harris was elected chairman, and L. E. Payne, secretary.

R. L. Harris again offered his resolution declaring it inexpedient to make any nomination. A substitute was offered by McKenzie Ware that the meeting endorse and vote for the Ma hone readjuster ticket. The substitute was adopted and the crowd left.

The meeting was without doubt, the most disorderly that ever assembled in the city.

VIRGINIA MIDLAND AND THE EXPRESS COMPANIES - The trustees' sale of the Virginia Midland Railroad, which was to have taken these to day at Alexandria. Va., has, as will be seen by the American yesterday, been estopped by a supersedess granted by Judge Christian, of the Virginia Court of Appeals. The original Midland is now one of the southern connections of the Adams Express Company, which has charge of the courses business over its line. charge of the express business over its line, and forms one of the most important roads over which this company reaches points in the South. It has been removed for some time that the Baltimore and Ohio Express Company were endeavoring to secure this trade. The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad owns a controlling interest in the Virginia Midland, and the sale, if made after June 1. when the writ is returnable, will be made subject to the lease held by the Baltimers and Ohio on filty miles of its line. It is believed that the Baltimere and Ohio will become the purchaser of the road, in which case the Baltimore and Ohio express will make an effort to obtain pessession of the express business. It is by no means certain, how-ever, that it will succeed, as the Adams Express can afford to pay a large price for what is to them an important link. The question will be whether the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad can not make more by continuing the express business where it is then by giving it to its own express company .- Balt American of to day.

THE RECENT HAIL STORM - The hall stoom of Tuesday evening, which was mentioned in vesterday's Gizette, did considerably more damage in this county than was at first reported. The stones varied in size from a hickory put to a duck's egg, and fell so numerously that they could be picked up by the hand full, two hours after the sterm. A horse belonging to Mr. Johnson was killed while standing in the road, and several men were badly cut by the falling ice. The farmers and fruit growers say the damage done to their crops will amount to several theu sand dellars, and many fields of growing grain and early vegetables were swept clean.
